Manifesto

We are a group of connected individuals and small businesses creating an economy of innovation and creativity.

We have the talent. We just need to work together. In order to create a sustainable community based on trust, we value:

■ collaboration over competition

■ community over agendas

■ participation over observation

■ doing over saying

■ friendship over formality

■ boldness over assurance

■ learning over expertise

■ people over personalities

Warning

This new economy cannot thrive without engaging the larger business, creative,
entrepreneurial, governmental,
and technical communities together.
