

PLANNING LAB

October 2, 2015 lab notes

Final Planning Lab

The final planning lab was used to finalize draft concepts and policies in preparation for the development of a draft plan.

The intent of the planning labs was to provide a forum where residents and stakeholders could join the study team, becoming "planner for a day". Feedback sought each lab session was used to build towards a final product.

The following summary provides some topical highlights of each previous lab session.

March:
Plan layout and format
Key policy changes
Transportation

April:
Housing
Parks & recreation

June:
Area plans
Housing
Land use compatibility

May: Redevelopment
- Need to strategically use remaining parcels
- Need to ensure infrastructure is in place prior to development
- Need focus on vacant or under utilized commercial properties, fostering redevelopment and change for these areas

August:
Draft policy refinement

September:
Fine-tuning of plan maps and graphics
