

SEVENTH ANNUAL
CHANDLER CHUCK WAGON COOK-OFF
NOVEMBER 11-12, 2016
SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

HOWDY FOLKS!

Get ready to be a part of the Chandler Chuck Wagon Cook-Off, the largest and best chuck wagon cooking event in Arizona— and Chandler’s best community event!

Celebrating its seventh year, our event has received national attention in American Cowboy Magazine; inclusion in USA Today’s 2014 national top food events; and the participation of Food Network celebrity chef Robert Irvine in our 2014 competition. Local news stations cover the Cook-Off each year, and the event has been featured on “In the Kitchen with Jan” starring local celebrity chef Jan D’Atri on KFYI 550 AM.

On November 11-12, 2016, people of all ages will gather at Chandler’s Tumbleweed Ranch to take in the sights, smells, and tastes of the Old West. Using historic cooking methods, authentic 1880s chuck wagon teams from across the West cook up five-course meals and faithfully recreate what it would have been like to live and dine on the range. Teams earn cash prizes after judges select the top offerings in taste, appearance, and texture. Meanwhile, chuck wagon meals are available for purchase by the public. Western music stage entertainment adds to the ambiance.

Discover more about Arizona’s diverse historical past through lively presentations and cooking demonstrations, unique hands-on activities, and wagon rides to the Arizona Railway Museum. This event is guaranteed to please anyone looking for a one-of-a-kind Old West experience.
