

A Celebration
Of Unity

2011 Celebration of Unity Dedication to Service Awards

The City of Chandler and Chandler Human Relations Commission would like to honor local individuals who have demonstrated a commitment to both service and diversity in Chandler.

Winners will be awarded at the 16th Annual Multicultural Festival on Saturday, January 15, 2011 in the Downtown Chandler Public Library Courtyard.

2010 Award Winners

Chandler names three winners for Dedication to Service Awards

Three volunteers who made a difference in Chandler were recognized by the city at a recent Celebration of Unity Breakfast.

Corley Haggarton

Neighborhoods Award

Described as a voice for the people in his Chandler Hoy Holmes neighborhood, Haggarton has worked with the city on a number of programs that help residents sustain their historic neighborhoods.

Bill Chaloux

Community Award

A Gilbert resident and volunteer for the non-profit About Care, Chaloux provides transportation, minor home repairs, friendly visits and phone calls to the homebound.

Holly Haffey

Education Award

As a teacher at San Tan Elementary School three years ago, Chandler resident Haffey started a service learning program called Kiwanis Kids that promotes giving back to the community.
