

COOL SEASON VEGETABLES in the LOW DESERT
(Planting Times as seed unless otherwise noted)

Beans, Fava	October to November
Beets	September to March
Cauliflower	September to January as transplants
Chinese cabbages	August to February
Chinese greens	August to February
Broccoli	August to January as transplants
Cabbage	September to January as transplants, September to October from seed
Carrots	August to April
Chard	September to November
Collards	August to February
Endive	September to November
Garlic	October from transplants or bulbs
Kale	August to November
Kohlrabi	August to February
Mustards	August to February
Onions, bunching types	October to November as transplants
Onions, bulbing	August to April as transplants
Peas	September to February
Potatoes	January to February as transplants
Radishes/Daikon	September to April
Rutabaga	October to January
Spinach	September to February
Turnips	September to February

More Difficult or Marginal in our area

Brussel sprouts	September to November as transplants
Celery	September to October
Leeks	August to September, January as transplants
Parsnips	October

Warm SEASON VEGETABLES in the LOW DESERT
(Planting Times as seed unless otherwise noted)

Artichokes	January to March as transplants
Asparagus	March to April
Beans - Lima	March
Basil	February, March to April as transplants
Bean - Blackeye	April to June
Beans - Pinto	July
Beans - Snap	March to April
Carrots	August to April
Corn - Sweet	February to March, July to August
Cucumbers	February to April
Eggplant	March as transplants
Jicama	March to April
Melons - Cantaloupe	March to July
Melons - Watermelon	February to March
Okra	March to April
Onion sets	February
Onion - green	February to April, August to December
Peppers	February to March, July
Potatoes - sweet	May to June
Onions, bulbing	August to April as transplants
Pumpkin	March, July
Radishes	February to April
Squash - summer	March to April
Sunflower	February to July
Tomatoes	February to March as transplants