Notes
1. The boundaries depicted do not coincide with property lines. The Future Land Use Plan is intended to provide strategic and not parcel specific direction.
2. There are city-adopted Area Plans that provide more precise, specific land use, and circulation plans that are not shown on the Future Land Use Plan. The city maintains these records, maps, and other documents which portray the land use patterns, circulation, and development quality.

Neighborhoods
This category allows a range of residential densities and a variety of non-residential uses such as commercial, institutional, public facilities, and commercial offices based upon location and other criteria as described in the text of the general plan.

Regional Commercial
Major regional commercial uses such as shopping malls, power centers, large single-use retail, and other commercial centers. As described in the general plan text, these locations are eligible for consideration of urban-style mixed-use developments. Other supportive land uses that may be allowed include large offices and mixed residential densities.

Employment
Major employers, knowledge-based employers, industrial/business parks, and industrial support uses. A compatible mix of supporting commercial uses and residential densities as an integral component may be considered as described in the General Plan text, growth area policies, and area plans.

Recreation/Open Space
Public parks and open spaces shown are greater than approximately five acres. Refer to the Parks and Open Space Map for more information.

Growth Areas
Targeted areas suitable for planned multimodal transportation and infrastructure expansion and improvements designed to support economic growth with a planned concentration of a variety of uses such as residential, office, commercial, tourism, and industrial. A.R.S. §9-461.05
